The conference is presented in Eastern Daylight Time (EDT) (GMT-4).

The conference is presented in Eastern Daylight Time (EDT) (GMT-4).

The conference is presented in Eastern Daylight Time (EDT) (GMT-4).

The conference is presented in Eastern Daylight Time (EDT) (GMT-4).
Scientific Sessions include Abstract Presentations or Mini-Symposium Presentations in any of the following submission categories:

- Aging and End-of-Life Considerations
- Chronic Conditions, including HIV
- Community Engagement
- COVID-19/Pandemic Impacts
- Health Professional Education
- Endocrinology/Hormone Therapy – Adult
- Endocrinology/Hormone Therapy – Adolescent
- Engaging Family and Caregivers
- Global Health Services and Systems
- International Medical Delivery
- Intersex/Differences of Sex Development
- Law, Policy, and Ethics
- Mental Health Across the Lifespan
- Nonbinary and Genderqueer Identities
- Non-surgical Body Modifications (e.g., hair removal, binding, tucking)
- Physical Medicine/Physical Therapy
- Primary Care Across the Lifespan/Care for Families
- Reproductive and Sexual Health Sciences
- Research Methods (e.g., CBPR, measurement, epidemiology)
- Social Determinants of Health/Health Equity
- Surgery
- Voice and Communication

CME Information
All Scientific Sessions and GEI Pre-Courses are included in our continuing education applications for accreditation with ACCME, ANCC, ASWB, APA, and ABIM-MOC. We hope to offer credit amounts similar to our 2022 Scientific Symposium which was awarded 14.5 hours live, and 76.5 hours enduring. Please check back for determinations of credit worthiness.