

Committee Co-Lead Application for WPATH Global Education Institute (GEI)

Thank you for your interest in becoming a WPATH Global Education Institute (GEI) Committee Co-Lead. Below is information on the Committees and the application. Deadline for Applications is September 2, 2024.

Ren Massey, Ph.D. & Jen Anger, M.D.
WPATH Global Education Institute Co-Chairs

Committee Description

Faculty Development Committee (OPENING: Mental Health Co-Lead)

The Faculty Development Committee identifies qualified individuals who are interested in teaching healthcare professionals to work with the trans/gender diverse community. Our goal is to increase faculty diversity of all forms (gender identity, race, region, country, age, sexual orientation, neurodiversity, ethnicity, faith, and spirituality, and more). The WPATH GEI curriculum is the basis of the material that faculty uses in their presentations. This committee can also develop material to enhance the training and preparation of the GEI Faculty.

GEI Committee Co-Lead Criteria

We are particularly seeking a Committee Co-Lead who will broaden and deepen the diversity of Leaders in the GEI in such areas as geographically diverse regions, trans/gender diverse identity, race, ethnicity, age, abilities, professions, languages spoken, and more. We strongly encourage WPATH members familiar with GEI courses and Certification to apply for these volunteer opportunities.

Applicants for a GEI Committee Co-Lead position within the GEI Committee must meet the following requirements:

1. Be a WPATH member (full or emeritus) in good standing since 2022 (minimum 2 years of experience in WPATH).
2. Sign a statement agreeing to support the latest version of the WPATH Standards of Care.

3. Sign a statement agreeing to adhere to the latest version of the WPATH Ethical Standards and a Code of Conduct.

Interested parties should complete the application by September 2, 2024
